

ART PRESENTATIONS

DADA: 2021

Rate Your Artwork using the art rubric: (Contact me if you want a copy)

Art Rubric

1: Disagree

2: Somewhat Agree

3: Strongly Agree

Craftsmanship:

I took pride in my artwork and worked hard on neatness.

Creativity:

The ideas used were completely my own. I got some inspiration from other artists, but overall this artwork is purely mine.

Participation:

I took my time and used class time correctly. I was able to finish the artwork without issue of time management.

Behavior:

I do not cause classroom disturbances and am respectful to everyone around me.

Artwork and Concepts:

In this artwork I added details into my art and/or gave an artist statement to explain the purpose of my artwork.

Materials:

I managed and used materials and the art space with care. I cleaned up my space.

When presenting:

- Clearly display artwork so everyone in class can see it.
- Explain what you are trying to display and communicate in your artwork.
- What is the central theme of your work? Explain.
- Tell why you used the materials you did (i.e. readymade art, paint, collage, etc.)
- Take questions when you are done explaining your art and be ready to defend/ explain your artwork. (Ms. Thomas will be there to help, so don't stress!)

Socratic Seminar Rules

1. Respect each other.
2. Speak loudly, clearly.
3. Do not put others down.
4. Listen closely.
5. You don't have to raise your hands, this is an open discussion art critique.
6. Refer to the art/ art movement often.
7. Consider all ideas and viewpoints.
8. Ask questions for clarification, don't stay confused.